Project Spotlight:

Benenson Strategy Group

On Thursday, January 21st, 70 volunteers from Benenson Strategy Group poured into the Lower East Side's oldest settlement house, University Settlement, to provide a fresh paint job for two senior centers and an eviction prevention program office space. The group came ready to work, tackling two large spaces where older adult program activities take place, four office spaces where case management services are provided, four bathrooms used by community members, and a main entryway. A huge thanks to the Benenson Strategy Group leadership and volunteers, superstar house captain Alex Sramek, and of course University Settlement for over 125 years of community engagement and social services on Manhattan's Lower East Side and beyond.

Livingston Cares

Livingston Cares is a non-profit organization that mobilizes volunteers locally and globally to assist in humanitarian and disaster relief projects. In January, a team of seven Livingston Cares volunteers from SUNY Geneseo spent a week helping Rebuilding Together NYC rebuild a storm-damaged living space in Canarsie, Brooklyn. RT NYC is incredibly thankful for their time and dedication and cannot wait to have them out again in March.
